The License Agreement will come into effect once your application has been approved by the Steering Committee of the NACG. You will be notified by email once your application has been reviewed.

The parties to the License Agreement are yourself and the Host Institutions of the NACG. A list of the current Host Institutions of the NACG may be found here: <https://nordicclinicalgenomics.org/about>. Once a new Host Institution is accepted or a Host Institution is removed this License Agreement will automatically become a License Agreement with the Host Institutions at such time on identical terms as this License Agreement.

The License Agreement remains in force until you terminate the License Agreement by written notice to post@nordicclinicalgenomics.org. The Steering Committee can terminate the License Agreement at any time by written notice.

The Constitution of the NACG forms an integral part of this License Agreement. You agree to adhere to the latest version of the Constitution of NACG at all times. A copy of the latest version of the Constitution can be found here: <https://nordicclinicalgenomics.org/resources>.

The Steering Committee of the NACG may decide to impose a membership fee in the future. If such decision is made you will be notified in writing and you will be given reasonable time to pay the membership fee or terminate your membership.

By entering into this License Agreement you consent to your personal information provided above being stored by the Secretariat of the NACG. You further consent to the NACG sending you relevant information about workshops, events or other topics by email. This License Agreement is governed by Norwegian law and jurisdiction.

By submitting this application to post@nordicclinicalgenomics.org you agree to be bound by this License Agreement.
